CASE MANAGEMENT TRACK DESIGNATION FORM

STEVEN JEFFERIES

CIVIL ACTION

v.

ATTORNEY GENERAL JEFFERSON B.
SESSIONS, III, ET AL

NO.

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a Case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a Case Management Track Designation Form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

- (a) Habeas Corpus – Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 through § 2255. ( )
- (b) Social Security – Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits. ( )
- (c) Arbitration – Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ( )
- (d) Asbestos – Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ( )
- (e) Special Management – Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) ( )
- (f) Standard Management – Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. (x)

Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan
Section 1:03 - Assignment to a Management Track

- (a) The clerk of court will assign cases to tracks (a) through (d) based on the initial pleading.
- (b) In all cases not appropriate for assignment by the clerk of court to tracks (a) through (d), the plaintiff shall submit to the clerk of court and serve with the complaint on all defendants a case management track designation form specifying that the plaintiff believes the case requires Standard Management or Special Management. In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a case management track designation form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.
- (c) The court may, on its own initiative or upon the request of any party, change the track assignment of any case at any time.
- (d) Nothing in this Plan is intended to abrogate or limit a judicial officer's authority in any case pending before that judicial officer, to direct pretrial and trial proceedings that are more stringent than those of the Plan and that are designed to accomplish cost and delay reduction.
- (e) Nothing in this Plan is intended to supersede Local Civil Rules 40.1 and 72.1, or the procedure for random assignment of Habeas Corpus and Social Security cases referred to magistrate judges of the court.

SPECIAL MANAGEMENT CASE ASSIGNMENTS
(See §1.02 (e) Management Track Definitions of the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan)

Special Management cases will usually include that class of cases commonly referred to as "complex litigation" as that term has been used in the Manuals for Complex Litigation. The first manual was prepared in 1969 and the Manual for Complex Litigation Second, MCL 2d was prepared in 1985. This term is intended to include cases that present unusual problems and require extraordinary treatment. See §0.1 of the first manual. Cases may require special or intense management by the court due to one or more of the following factors: (1) large number of parties; (2) large number of claims or defenses; (3) complex factual issues; (4) large volume of evidence; (5) problems locating or preserving evidence; (6) extensive discovery; (7) exceptionally long time needed to prepare for disposition; (8) decision needed within an exceptionally short time; and (9) need to decide preliminary issues before final disposition. It may include two or more related cases. Complex litigation typically includes such cases as antitrust cases; cases involving a large number of parties or an unincorporated association of large membership; cases involving requests for injunctive relief affecting the operation of large business entities; patent cases; copyright and trademark cases; common disaster cases such as those arising from aircraft crashes or marine disasters; actions brought by individual stockholders; stockholder's derivative and stockholder's representative actions; class actions or potential class actions; and other civil (and criminal) cases involving unusual multiplicity or complexity of factual issues. See §0.22 of the first Manual for Complex Litigation and Manual for Complex Litigation Second, Chapter 33.

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

AND NOW, comes the plaintiff, Steven Jefferies, an adult individual by and through his attorney, Michael P. Gottlieb, Esquire and for his Complaint states unto this Honorable Court as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This is an action to uphold the constitutional right to keep and bear arms, which "guarantee[s] the individual right to possess and carry firearms" elevates above all interests the right of law-abiding, responsible citizens to use arms in defense of hearth and home. District of Columbia v. Heller, 554 U.S. 570, 128 Supreme Court 2783, 2797, 2821 (2008).

2. However, in contravention to plaintiff's fundamental Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms, defendants have collectively and separately prohibited a certain class of individuals from obtaining and possessing firearms; specifically, individuals who have been involuntarily committed and are prohibited from acquiring or possessing a firearm under 18 U.S.C. Section 922 (g)(4) are not afforded any means to demonstrate following their release from commitment their fitness to regain their Second Amendment right to acquire and possess a firearm.

3. This ban on individuals acquiring and possessing firearms based solely on the fact of a past involuntary commitment is an overbroad infringement on the Second Amendment because there is no reasonable procedure pursuant to which an individual could regain their Second Amendment rights upon demonstrating their current mental and emotional fitness.

4. As a consequence of this overbroad ban, sane, trustworthy, competent individuals that are not a threat to themselves or others and are not in any way mentally ill are forever prohibited from exercising their Second Amendment rights but for the bare fact of a one time involuntary commitment without consideration of the individual's present circumstances.

THE PARTIES

5. Plaintiff, Steven Jefferies, is a natural person, a citizen of the United States who resides at 56 Grange Avenue, Collegeville, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania. Plaintiff is not a risk to himself or to other people but was involuntarily committed on October 5, 2001 pursuant to Section 302 of the Mental Health Procedures Act.

6. Defendant, Attorney General Jefferson B. Sessions, III heads the United States Department of Justice (Department of Justice), with an address of 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington DC 20530, which is the United States agency responsible for enforcement of federal criminal laws. Defendant Sessions, in his capacity as Attorney General is presently enforcing the unconstitutionally broad ban complained of in this Complaint. Defendant Sessions also has ultimate authority for supervising all of the functions of the Department of Justice and the United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) which is an arm of the Department of Justice.

7. Defendant Department of Justice with an address of 950 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington DC 20530, is the agency principally enforcing the unconstitutionally broad prohibition under 18 U.S.C. Section 922 (g) (4). Preventing plaintiff from obtaining a firearm based on the bare fact of a one time involuntary commitment.

8. Defendant ATF (United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives) with an office at 99 New York Avenue NW, Washington DC 20226, is the arm of the Department of Justice responsible for prevention of federal offenses involving the use, manufacture, and possession of firearms, including the unconstitutionally broad ban challenged in this case. Defendant ATF also regulates, via licensing, the sale, possession and transportation of firearms and ammunition in interstate commerce. ATF is currently enforcing the laws, customs, practices and policies complained of in this action.

9. Defendant Thomas E. Brandon is the Deputy Director of the ATF with an office at 99 New York Avenue NW, Washington DC 20226 and, in that capacity, is presently enforcing the laws, customs, practices, and policies complained of in this action.

10. Defendant Ronald B. Turk is the Associate Deputy Director/Chief Operating Office of the ATF with an office at 99 New York Avenue NW, Washington DC 20226 and, in that capacity, is presently enforcing the laws, customs, practices, and policies complained of in this action.

11. Defendant Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) with an office at 935 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington DC 20535, is an agency of the Department of Justice and is the agency primarily responsible through its NICS Section of performing background checks for federal, state, and local law enforcement authorities. Defendant FBI's NICS Section is responsible in this case for communicating to the Bucks County, Pennsylvania Sheriff's Department and the Pennsylvania State Police that plaintiff was prohibited from acquiring a firearm by the unconstitutionally overbroad ban complained of in this action. Defendant FBI is presently enforcing the laws, customs, practices and policies complained of in this action.

12. Defendant Andrew McCabe, with an office at 935 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington DC 20535, is the Acting Director of the FBI and, in that capacity, is presently enforcing the laws, customs, practices and policies complained of in this action.

13. Defendant United States of America is a proper defendant in this action pursuant to 5 U.S.C. Section 702.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. This case concerns certain subject matter under the original and exclusive jurisdiction of the Federal Courts of the United States of America.

15. This action seeks relief pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 2201, 2202, and 2412, and 5 U.S.C. Section 702. Therefore, jurisdiction is founded on 28 U.S.C. Section 1331 in that this action arises under the Constitution and Laws of the United States.

16. This Court has authority to award costs and attorney's fees pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 2412.

17. Venue is proper in this jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Section 1391(e).

STEVEN JEFFERIES' ALLEGATIONS

18. On or about October 5, 2001, plaintiff was involved in a marital dispute with his then wife.

19. Plaintiff believed, rightly or wrongly that his then wife was having an affair.

20. Plaintiff was involved in an altercation with his wife.

21. Wife alleged that plaintiff had threatened or attempted suicide.

22. Wife's allegation was such that she claimed that Mr. Jefferies had threatened to kill himself.

23. On October 5, 2001, plaintiff was involuntarily committed by the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pennsylvania for a period not to exceed 72 hours pursuant to the Pennsylvania Mental Health Procedures Act 50 P.S. Section 302. A true and correct copy of the commitment order is attached hereto, incorporated herein and marked as Exhibit "A".

24. On October 9, 2001, plaintiff was involuntarily committed by the Order of the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County for a period not to exceed 20 days of outpatient treatment. A true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto, incorporated herein and marked as Exhibit "B".

25. On October 9, 2001, he was discharged after having been recommitted for a period of up to 20 days outpatient treatment pursuant to Section 303 of the Mental Health Procedures of Act.

26. The primary reason for commitment was an alleged risk that plaintiff was a danger to himself due to his emotional state.

27. At that time, defendant was hospitalized at Montgomery County Emergency Services, 50 Beech Drive, Norristown, Pennsylvania 19403.

28. Plaintiff's experience at this mental health facility was horrendous to say the least.

29. Plaintiff filed a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County to have his firearm rights restored pursuant to 18 Pa. C.S. Section 6105(c)(4).

30. On January 16, 2004, the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas granted him relief from the firearms prohibition and determined that plaintiff was capable of possessing firearms without posing a danger to himself or others. A true and correct copy of the Order is attached hereto, incorporated herein and marked as Exhibit "C".

31. Subsequent to that Order being signed by the Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, petitioner began to use his firearms again and later attempted to purchase a firearm but failed the Pennsylvania Instant Check System background check which he did not understand

32. Convinced that the authorities may have been mistaken, he later attempted to renew his concealed carry license for his .32 caliber Derringer.

33. Petitioner then learned that he was a prohibited person pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4).

34. Plaintiff is 52 years of age and is currently employed as a self-employed landscaper and has one child.

35. Plaintiff has not had mental health treatment since the above time in 2001.

36. Plaintiff graduated from Plymouth Whitemarsh High School in 1984.

37. Plaintiff attended tech school in high school for automotive repairs.

38. Plaintiff worked for Conicelli, a large local car dealership for 25 years as a mechanic.

39. Conicelli sent plaintiff to school to specialize in electronics and other areas.

40. Prior to his mental health commitment, plaintiff took a hunter safety class at age 12 as required by law.

41. Plaintiff was taught firearms safety and marksmanship by his father.

42. Plaintiff was an avid deer hunter both with a rifle and a bow until he learned that he was not allowed to possess firearms.

43. Consequently, plaintiff currently hunts deer with a Matthews compound bow.

44. Plaintiff is a former member at the Lower Providence Rod and Gun Club where he would shoot trap until he learned that he was a prohibited person.

45. Plaintiff learned that he became a prohibited person when he went to renew his concealed carry license which was for the carry of his 32 caliber Derringer.

46. Until learning that he was a prohibited person, plaintiff consistently hunted and used and carried firearms both for recreation and for personal protection.

47. There were never any incidents of plaintiff being anything other than safe and appropriately handling his firearms either while carrying his small hand gun or while hunting.

48. Plaintiff intends to acquire firearms for personal protection and for recreation but is prevented from doing so by the defendants' enforcement of the unconstitutionally broad ban complained of in this action. Specifically, defendants have not permitted plaintiff to demonstrate his current fitness and have instead prevented him from owning or possessing a firearm based solely on the one time 2001 commitment. Plaintiff has in fact been unable to purchase or possess a firearm and fears arrest, criminal prosecution, incarceration and fines if he were to do so.

THE LAW

49. 18 U.S.C. Section 922 provides the following:

(g) it shall be unlawful for any person - (4) who has been adjudicated as a mentally defective or who has been committed to a mental institution;... to ship or transport in interstate or foreign commerce, or possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition; or to receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce.

50. Under 18 U.S.C. Section 925 (c), an individual prohibited from acquiring a firearm may apply to the Attorney General for relief from the prohibition, which the Attorney General may grant "if the applicant will not be likely to act in a manner dangerous to public safety and that the granting of the relief would not be contrary to the public interest."

51. Defendant ATF has promulgated a Rule detailing the manner that a review under 18 U.S.C. Section 925 (c) may be sought. 27 C.F.R. Section 478.144(2011).

52. However, notwithstanding the provisions of 18 U.S.C. Section 925(c) and 27 C.F.R. Section 478.144(2011) which purports to provide a means to request relief for an individual from acquiring a firearm, United States Congress has specifically denied any funding "to investigate or act upon applications for relief from federal firearms disabilities under 18 U.S.C. Section 922(6)." The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2010, Public Law No. 111-117, 123 stat. 3034, 3128.

53. Due to lack of funding, the Defendant ATF does not in fact provide any review under 18 U.S.C. Section 925(c) to provide relief from a federal prohibition on acquiring or possessing a firearm.

54. Because Defendant ATF does not provide a review for relief from a federal prohibition on acquiring or possessing a firearm, plaintiffs cannot avail themselves of any federal procedure to regain their Second Amendment rights on the grounds that they do not present a threat to themselves or others.

55. Under the NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 2007 (NIAA), Congress provided an alternate route for relief from a federal prohibition on acquiring a firearm in which the various states may elect to provide an ATF approved program to review, approve, or deny applications for such relief. NICS Improvement Amendments Act of 2007, Public Law 110-180, 121 stat. 2559, 2569-70.

56. To date, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has failed to institute such an ATF approved program, and plaintiffs cannot therefore avail themselves of any state or federal procedure providing relief from a federal prohibition on acquiring a firearm.

COUNT I - SECOND AMENDMENT VIOLATION

57. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 61 above as if more fully set forth herein.

58. Defendants Attorney General Jefferson B. Sessions, III; Department of Justice; United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF); Thomas E. Brandon; Ronald B. Turk; Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI); Andrew McCabe; United States of America together and separately, violated plaintiffs' Second Amendment rights.

59. 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) prohibits any individual who has ever been involuntarily committed without regard for the reason for the commitment or the present circumstances of the individual from purchasing or possessing a firearm.

60. Notwithstanding 18 U.S.C. Section 925(c) no federal relief from the federal prohibition under 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) in fact exists due to explicit congressional denial of any use of funds for such relief.

61. Notwithstanding NIAA, no state relief from the federal prohibition under 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) exists in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania due to the Commonwealth's failure to provide for a procedure for such relief.

62. These federal laws and policies prohibiting plaintiff from acquiring a firearm and providing for no review of the prohibition because of lack of federal funding and reliance upon a non-existing state program constitutes an overbroad infringement and an impermissibly burdens plaintiff's right to keep and bear arms under the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.

63. As a direct and proximate result of the above infringement and impermissible burden on plaintiff's Second Amendment rights, plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer from an unlawful deprivation of his fundamental constitutional right to keep and bear arms.

64. Plaintiff has incurred attorney's fees and costs as a direct result of prosecuting the present court action.

COUNT II - FIFTH AMENDMENT DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

65. Plaintiff hereby incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 64 above as if more fully set forth herein.

66. Defendants Attorney General Jefferson B. Sessions, III; Department of Justice; United States Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Explosives (ATF); Thomas E. Brandon; Ronald B. Turk; Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI); Andrew McCabe; United States of America together and separately, violated plaintiff's rights under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment.

67. The unconstitutionally broad ban on a certain class of individuals - individuals who have ever been involuntarily committed - acquiring a firearm without providing for a means to seek review and relief from such a ban violates plaintiff's rights to equal protection under the Laws guaranteed under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

68. In violation of the plaintiff's right to due process, plaintiff has been deprived of his Second Amendment right to keep and bear firearms without being afforded notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter prior to the deprivation and/or through a post-deprivation proceeding to seek and obtain relief from the deprivation.

69. As a direct and proximate result of the above infringement and impermissible burden on plaintiff's Second Amendment rights, plaintiff has suffered and continue to suffer from an unlawful deprivation of her fundamental constitutional right to keep and bear arms.

70. Plaintiff has incurred attorney's fees and costs as a direct result of prosecuting the present court action.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests this Honorable Court enter judgment in his favor and against the defendants as follows:

A. Declare that 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) and its derivative regulations, and all related laws, policies and procedures violate plaintiff's right to keep and bear arms as secured by the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution.

B. Declare that 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) its derivative regulations, and all related laws, policies and procedures violate plaintiff's right to equal protection and due process under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

C. Declare that enforcement of 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) its derivative regulations, and all related laws, policies and procedures violate plaintiff's rights to equal protection and due process under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

D. Permanently enjoin the defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees and all persons in act of concert or participation with them from enforcing against plaintiffs 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) and all its derivative regulations, and all related laws, policies and procedures that would impede or criminalize plaintiff's exercise of her right to keep and bear arms - unless plaintiff is afforded an opportunity to demonstrate her fitness and thereby seek relief from 18 U.S.C. Section 922(g)(4) and all related laws, derivative regulations, policies and procedures.

E. Award plaintiff's costs and attorney's fees and expenses to the extent permitted under 28 U.S.C. Section 2412.

F. Grant such further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Part I
APPLICATION

I believe that

Steven Jefferies

is severely mentally disabled: (Check and complete all applicable for this patient.)

A person is severely mentally disabled when, as a result of mental illness, his/her capacity to exercise self-control, judgment and discretion in the conduct of his/her affairs and social relations or to care for his/her own personal needs is so lessened that he/she poses a clear and present danger of harm to others or to himself or herself.

- ☐ Clear and present danger to others shall be shown by establishing that within the past 30 days the person has inflicted or attempted to inflict serious bodily harm on another and that there is reasonable probability that such conduct will be repeated. A clear and present danger of harm to others may be demonstrated by proof that the person has made threats of harm and has committed acts in furtherance of the threat to commit harm; or

Clear and present danger to himself shall be shown by establishing that within the past 30 days;

- ☐ (i) the person has acted in such manner as to evidence that he/she would be unable, without care, supervision and the continued assistance of others, to satisfy his/her need for nourishment, personal or medical care, shelter, or self-protection and safety, and that there is reasonable probability that death, serious bodily injury or serious physical debilitation would ensue within 30 days unless adequate treatment were afforded under the act; or
- ☒ (ii) the person has attempted suicide and that there is reasonable probability of suicide unless adequate treatment is afforded under this act. For the purpose of this subsection, a clear and present danger may be demonstrated by the proof that the person has made threats to commit suicide and has committed acts which are in furtherance of the threat to commit suicide; or
- ☐ (iii) the person has substantially mutilated himself/herself or attempted to mutilate himself/herself substantially and that there is the reasonable probability of mutilation unless adequate treatment is afforded under this act. For the purposes of this subsection, a clear and present danger shall be established by proof that the person has made threats to commit mutilation and has committed acts which are in furtherance of the threat to commit mutilation.

Describe in detail the specific behavior within the last 30 days which supports your belief (include location, date and time whenever possible, and state who observed the behavior):

husband has become suspicious of my behavior and followed me to our local football game where I was with our 8 year old daughter. He never knew he was there until leaving. He followed me and proceeded to bump the back of my car as I was turning onto our street. An argument followed. He told me that he had been practicing how to

ORDER FOR RELIEF FROM FIREARMS PROHIBITION

AND NOW, this 16th day of Jan 2004, it is ordered and decreed that the petition, Steven Jefferies is granted relief from the Firearms Prohibition of 18 Pa.C.S. 6105(c)(4) to possess firearms that has been in effect since October 4, 2001 due to an involuntary mental health commitment under section 302 of the Mental Health Procedures Act at Montgomery County Emergency Services (MCES). The Court has determined that the petitioner is capable of possessing firearms without posing a danger to himself or others. Henceforth, the aforesaid commitment shall no longer render it unlawful for the petitioner to possess, use, control, sell, transfer, or manufacture firearms in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws, and shall in no way affect the outcome of any application made to the State Police on behalf of the petitioner regarding the same. ~~Accordingly, the Pennsylvania State Police shall expunge and destroy all records of this commitment from their files and give notice of this order to any other concerned agencies to whom they have reported information about the said commitment.~~
